2022 Andouille Festival Arts and Crafts Vendor Application

As the St. John the Baptist Parish Andouille Festival draws near, we would like to take this opportunity to invite you to participate in this 48 year-old tradition. This event draws nearly 22,000 patrons each year and offers great exposure to participating Arts and Crafts vendors. The Andouille Festival is a great marketing opportunity where you could gain new customers and provide one of a kind items to thousands of festival-goers. Just think how much your business or organization could benefit by participating in this year's Andouille Festival!

Arts and Crafts Vendor Application

The Andouille Festival is focused on promoting local for-profit and not-for-profit establishments. The Arts and Crafts Village is an outdoor marketplace for all Arts and Crafts vendors. In this space, there will ONLY be Arts & Crafts sold. We seek a creative diverse array of vendor items at reasonable prices and in a family-friendly environment. At the sole discretion of the Andouille Festival Committee, sales, displays, or activities that are deemed inappropriate and offensive will be asked to be removed and ceased. Vendors will be asked to leave the festival if actions or sales continue and refunds will not be granted. While the Andouille Festival Committee limits the number of same-business vendors, we will not regulate the legalities of franchise agreements of having two of the same-business vendors on site. (Example: Paparazzi, Sentsy, Avon, etc.). Homemade food or beverages (including water) are not allowed to be sold unless you are a registered food business (pre-packaged candy, beef jerky, salsa, etc.) as it competes with the food vendors. Regardless of past participation, all vendors must apply annually for selection. To be considered by the arts and crafts committee, vendors must adhere to the following:

- In keeping with the festival's mission, local vendors will receive first consideration, but all are encouraged to apply.
- Merchandise made available for sale will be limited to arts and crafts items that have been sculpted, painted, photographed, designed, constructed or otherwise fashioned by the artist or artisan.
- A proposed list of merchandise, including pricing, must be submitted. Other promotional materials describing your business, organization, and items are encouraged but not required.
- Submit a complete list of proposed arts and crafts items with photographs. Only items on the approved list will be allowed for sale at the Festival.
- Please note that arts and crafts vendors are expected to be on-site and ready to sell by the opening of each day and must close operations at the close of each day in accordance with festival hours. Vendors found in violation will jeopardize future participation.
